

Pearson

Certificate

This is to certify that

Tomas Mozdren

attended

Pearson and BBC Live Classes international project held between October 2019 and May 2020

Pearson and BBC Live Classes is an international project for students, teachers and schools around the world who join a global community to learn English, together.

By taking part in the project, students prove they can put their English language knowledge and skills into practice, communicating with their peers in a real-life, multicultural context.

Language: International English